'This is My Life' Stories

Podcast Series Launch & Conversations!

Tues, April 16, 2024 6:30 - 8:30 pm

Join us to hear from people and families about their experience with how individualized funding and independent facilitation over time makes a difference in their lives:

- How it benefits them
- What these kinds of supports make possible for them
- How it shapes their vision and dreams

A virtual gathering for people living with a disability, their families, trusted others, independent facilitators, allies, partners and friends.

Facilitated by Judith McGill, Kory Earle and other leaders

We invite you to come and hear this first podcast in the series and to talk with others about how these supports contribute to each person leading a rich and meaningful life in their neighbourhood, and what needs to change in Ontario for this to happen more broadly.
